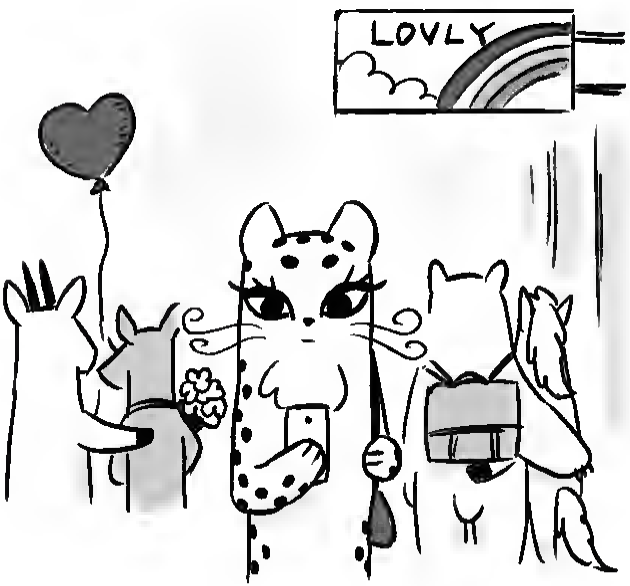
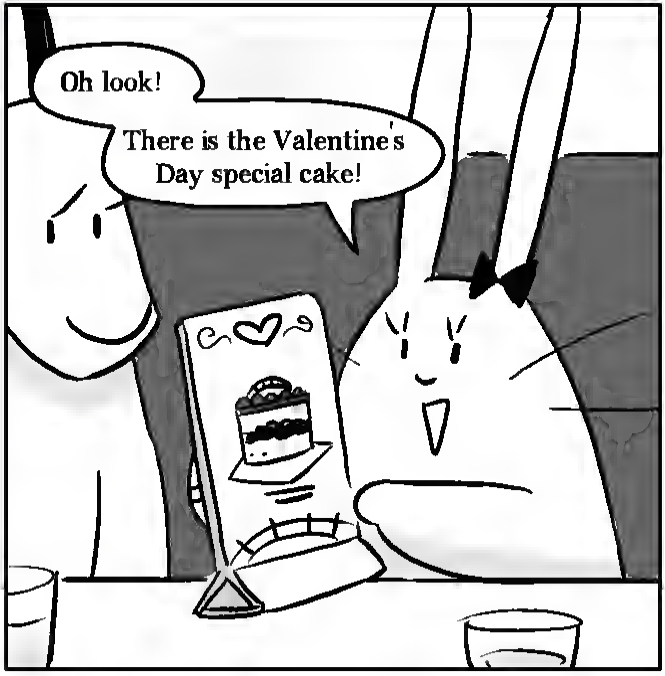
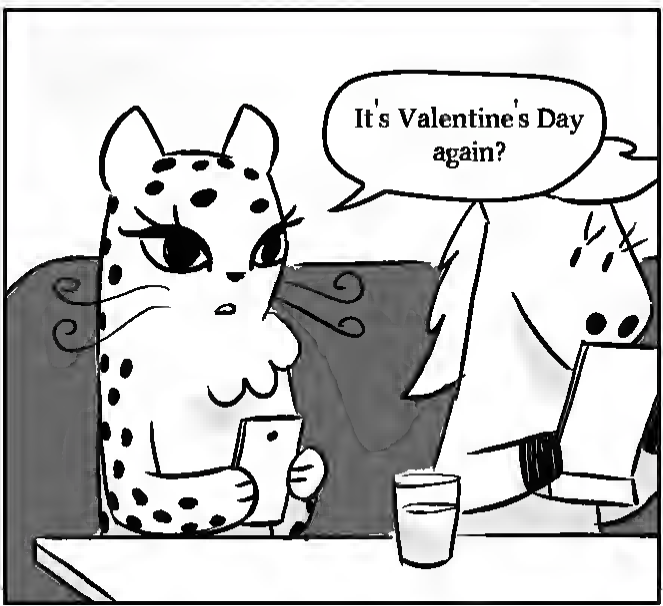
The Unromantic Cheetah

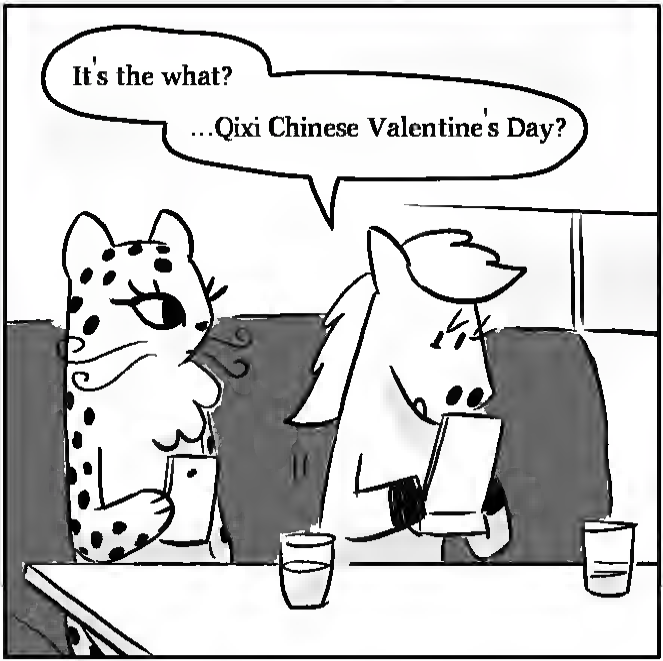




Oh look!
There is the Valentine's Day special cake!

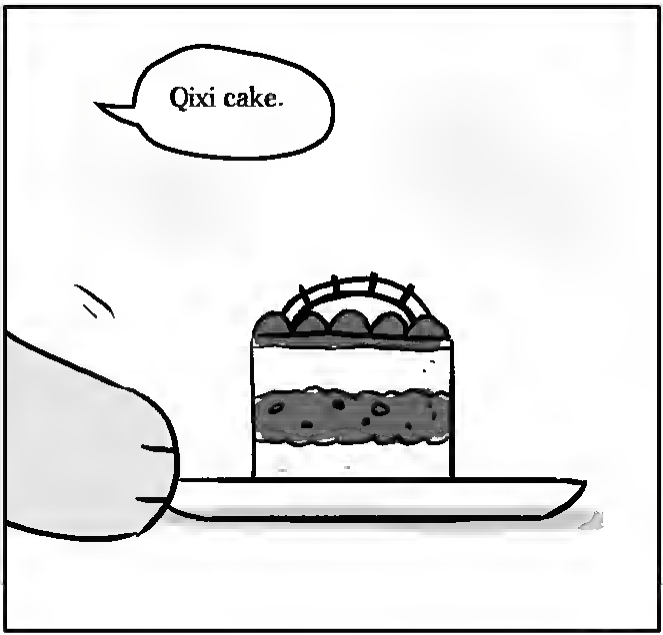


It's Valentine's Day again?

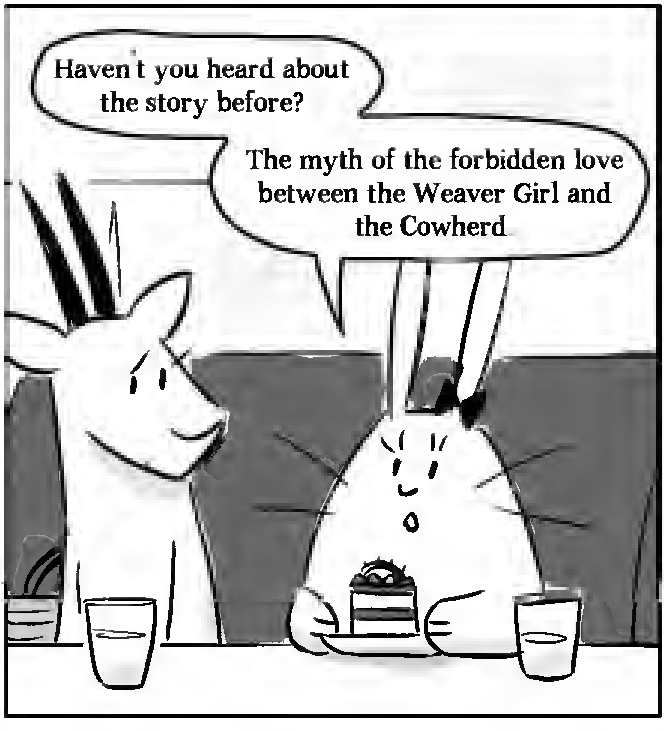


It's the what?
...Qixi Chinese Valentine's Day?

I think I have heard of it before...
I'll have one cake!
Thanks but no thanks.
I'll pass the dessert.



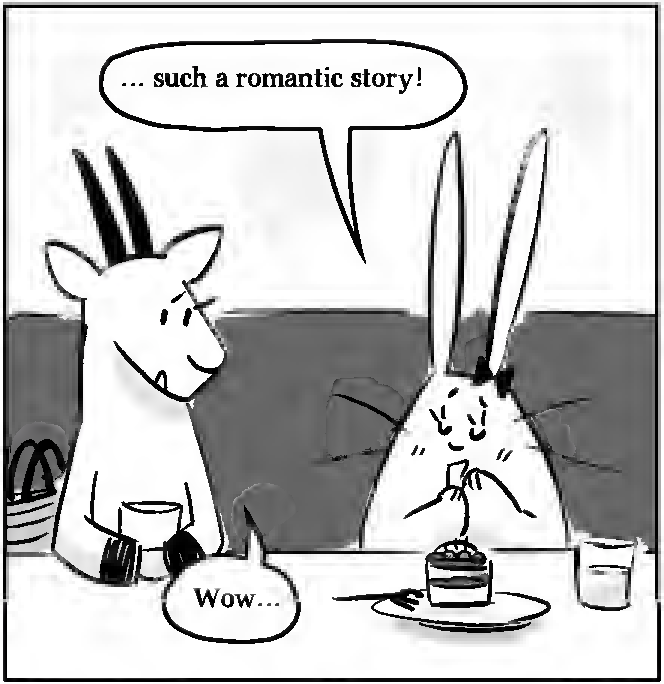
Qixi cake.



The Weaver Girl was the god's daughter and she secretly married the Cowherd, who was a mortal.

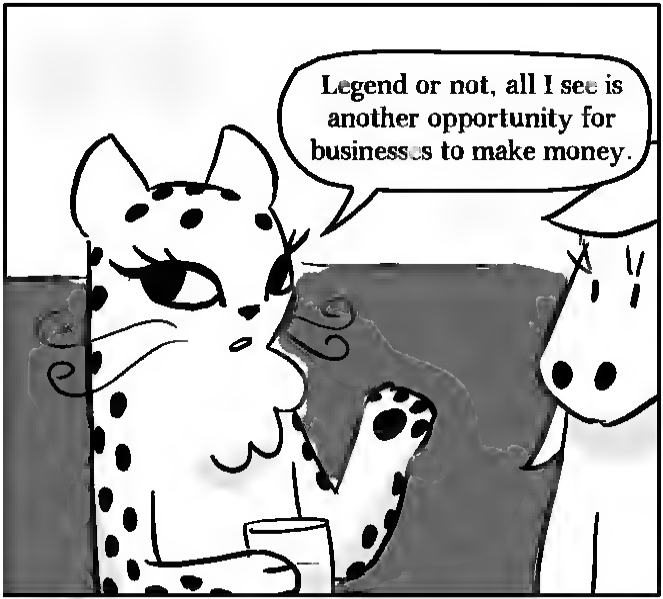
When the gods found out, they were furious and forced the lovers to separate between heaven and earth by the milky way.

They were only able to meet once a year by a bridge of magpies in the sky.



... such a romantic story!
Wow...

Once a year sounds really sad though...



Legend or not, all I see is another opportunity for businesses to make money.

Aww, you're so unromantic, Cheetah-B!

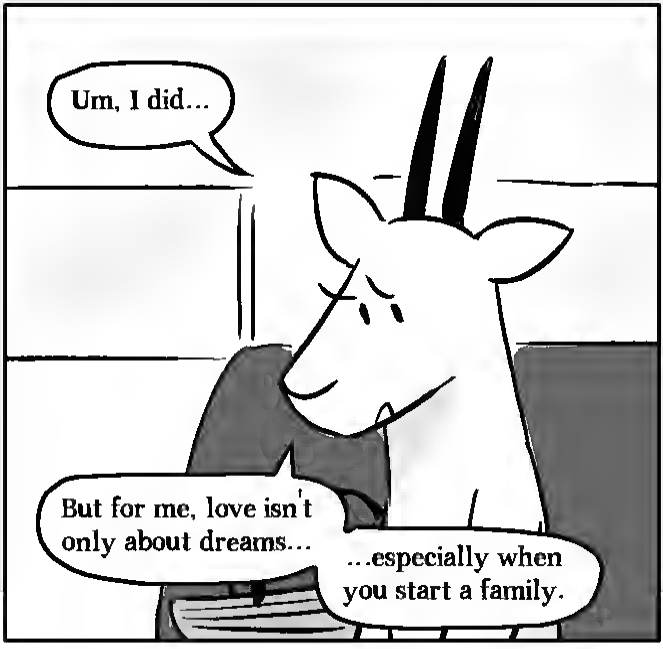
I'm just being practical.
You don't talk about practical things when you're in love!
Love is beautiful because it's just like a dream!

Haven't you been in love before?

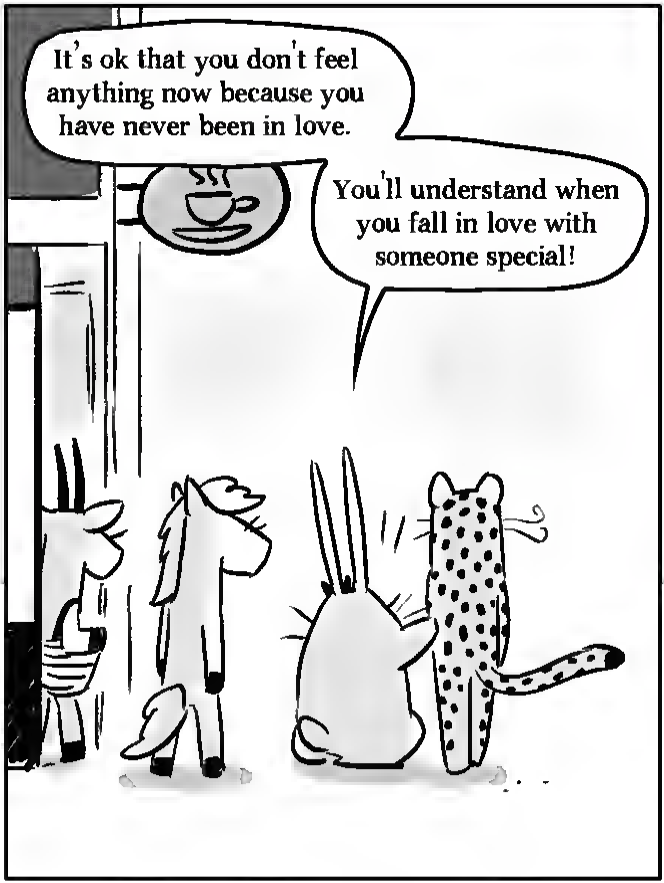
Not really.
Oh.

Don't look at me, I'm not even in the dating scene.
Proudly single

How about you Anntelope?
You must have been in love before!

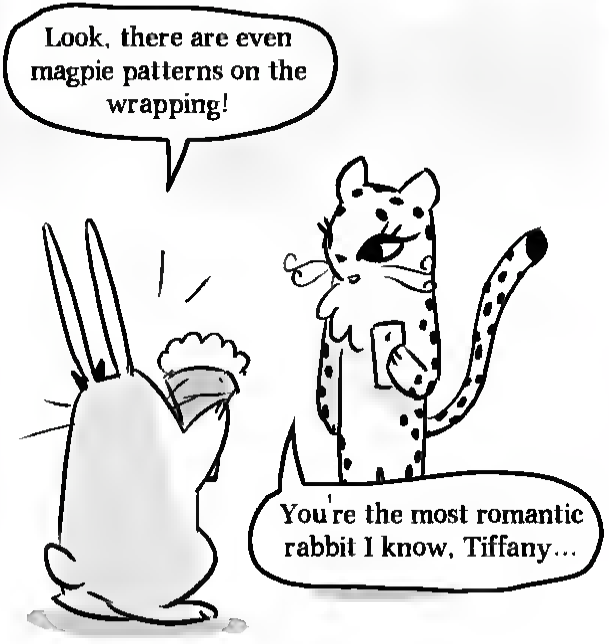


Um, I did...
But for me, love isn't only about dreams...
...especially when you start a family.



It's ok that you don't feel anything now because you have never been in love.
You'll understand when you fall in love with someone special!

Awww, aren't these flowers pretty!
Tortis is soooo sweet!
PTION



Look, there are even magpie patterns on the wrapping!
You're the most romantic rabbit I know, Tiffany...

I should say Tiffany and Tortis make a pretty romantic couple.
Thanks Horsie! Hope you two can feel this love some day too!

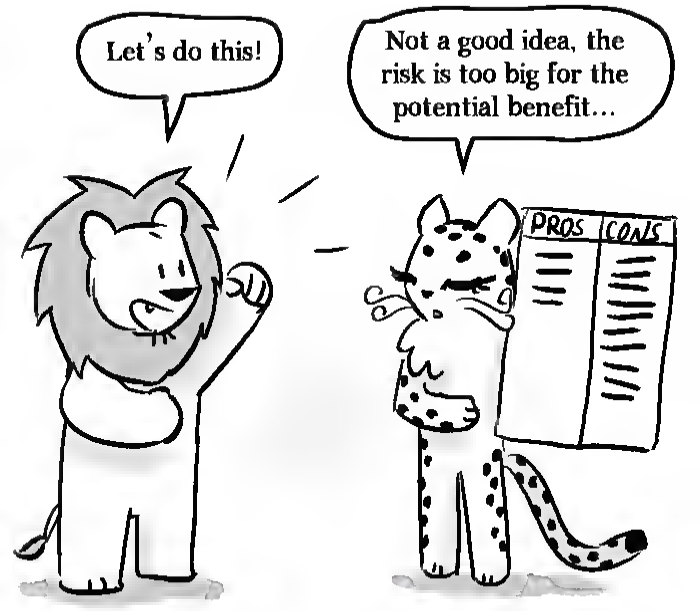
You're so unromantic, Cheetah-B!

EXAMPLE (1)



Let's do this!
Not a good idea, the risk is too big for the potential benefit...
PROS
CONS

EXAMPLE (2)

I'll never get it why you're always so picky about food.
just eat whatever that makes you happy!
I wouldn't trade a moment of indulgence with my health and body shape.
You'll never get it.

LOVE
ANALYSIS

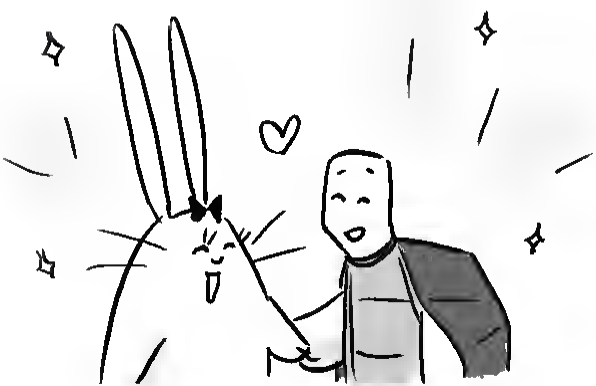
PROS	CONS

PROS

- You have someone to depend on

- It might lead to a family

- Increases happiness

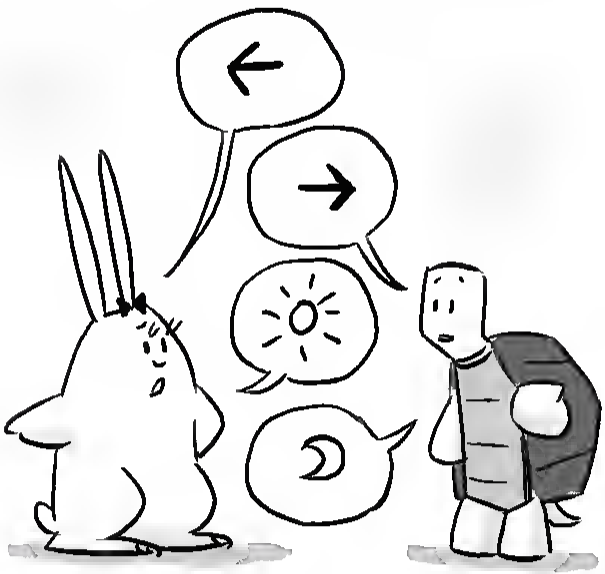


BUT

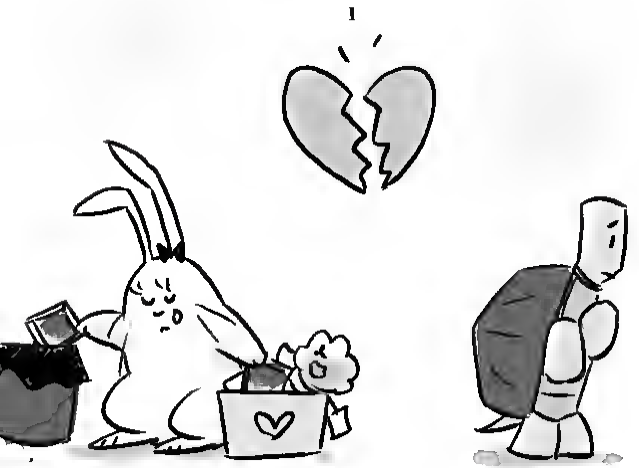
CONS

- A couple might have more problems than singles

- You don't even know if it's the right match

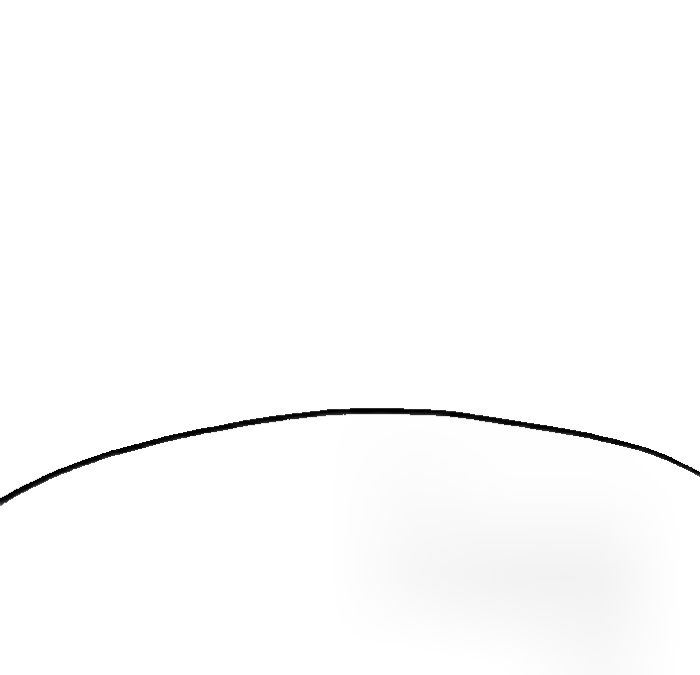


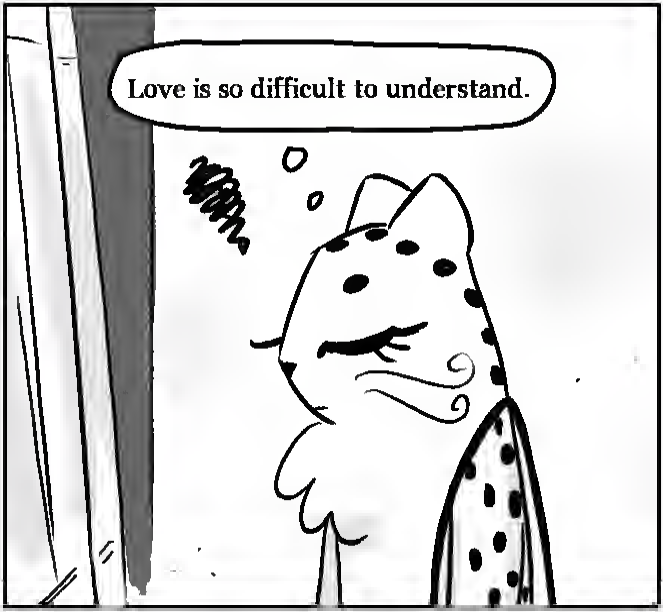
- If not, all the time, money and feelings invested will go to waste



(cheetah-B's imagination)

Why take such a big risk for something so unpredictable?





Love is so difficult to understand.

Cheetah-B, not all things in the world can be viewed and measured in a rational way...
...we have emotions too.

This is just stupid.

YUM

what

why are you sending me this you want to be scolded again?

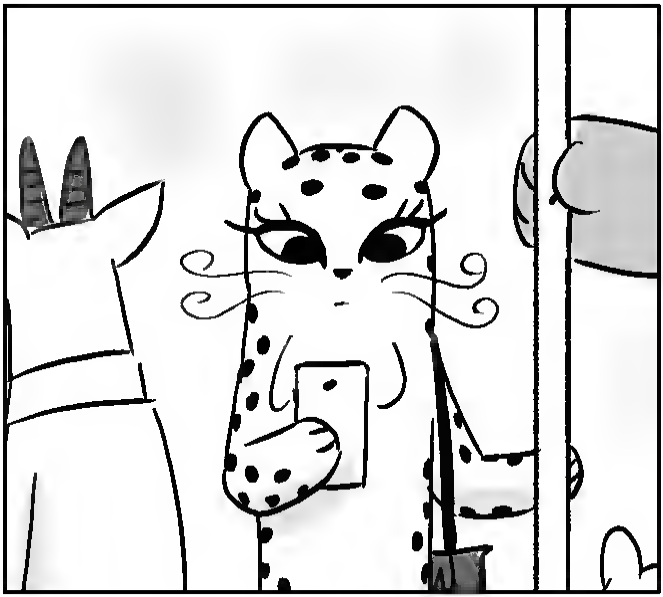
dunno

just kinda miss your nagging haha

XD



Why am I suddenly feeling a little happy...?
